Resolution 2019-02
A resolution concerning the Sheriff's Trust Accounts.

The Hand County Sheriff by virtue of his duties to collect judgments, overdue taxes, bonds, fees and other funds has a checking accounts in his own name but under the authority of the state laws of South Dakota and subject to inspection, review and examination of the state's Department of Legislative Audit.

The Quion Financial Bank, a depositor, in a request to the sheriff, asked that the governing board of county commissioners pass a resolution spelling out the authorized officials who have shall have authority to expend funds from the sheriff's trust accounts to satisfy their internal controls. This being done despite the fact the county board of commissioners have no interest in the sheriff's trust accounts.

Now, therefore it be resolved by the board of county commissioners for Hand County that Sheriff Shane Croeni and Office Manager Chelsea Price be authorized officials on the accounts and that they each have authority to expend and manage the funds which may pass through the sheriff's trust accounts.

It is further resolved, that upon the end of employment of either person aforesaid, that their authority under this resolution in null and void and the Quion Financial Bank may remove them as authorized persons without further action.

It is further resolved, that upon receipt of this resolution Quion Financial Bank shall remove all other persons whose name may appear as an authorized person on the accounts expect those expressly named in paragraph three of this resolution.

The account numbers there being: 7722398852, 7722398836, and 7722398844 [To be redacted prior to publication]

Upon motion of Commissioner Wernsman, and seconded by Commissioner Jones, with the remaining members voting in favor thereof, the resolution passed and is effective with the signature of the board chairman or his vice-chairman.
